MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Training

SUBJECT: Weekly Report #32: Defense Intelligence School (DIS)
29 November - 3 December 1965

1. The week beginning 29 November involved a large number of Agency speakers at DIS. Mr. Dulles addressed the Advanced Intelligence class on Monday morning. One of our guest speakers, [redacted] remained to hear the former DCI. Listeners were very pleased at the opportunity of hearing and questioning Mr. Dulles. There was fairly general consensus from those who had heard him before that some of the former sparkle seemed lacking.

2. Messrs. [redacted] and Lundahl spoke to the Strategic Intelligence class on Monday; [redacted] did so on Tuesday, as did [redacted] of OSI, on Wednesday. [redacted] spoke on Thursday to the SIC combined with the Attaché class and wives.

3. In support of the Defense Intelligence class, our speakers were [redacted]

4. Of all of the above, I was familiar with the speaking ability and achievement record of all except [redacted]. It was a real pleasure and surprise to hear him as strong and effectively good at the end of a 3-1/2 hour stint as when he started.

5. All others, except for Lundahl, were as good as in prior presentations. Art still looks below full strength; his long illness has had some effect on his normal rapid-fire delivery.

6. Immediately on return from Norfolk and vicinity, I briefed [redacted] on my reactions to presentations from SACLANT, LANTCOM, TAC, and AFLANT.
